here's a knocking indeed! if a man were porter of hell-gate, he should have old turning the key.

knock, knock, knock! who's there, i'the name of beezeleubub? here's a farmer that hanged himself on the expectation of plenty: come in time; have napkins enow about u; here you'll sweat for't.

knock, knock! who's there, in the other devil's name? faith, here's an equivocator, that could swear in both scales against either scale; who committed treason enough for God's sake, yet could not equivocate to heaven; O come in, equivocator.

knock, knock! who's there? faith, here's an english tailor come hither, for stealing out of a french hose; come in, tailor; here you may roast your goose.

knock, knock! never at quiet! what are you? but this place is too cold for hell, i'll devil-porter it no further. i had thought to have let in some of all professions that go the primrose way to the everlasting bonfire. anon, anon!

i pray you, remember the porter.
